The apartment is sold empty, with no furnishings. The Piazza della Repubblica area represents one of the most strategic areas of Milan. Located a few steps from the Central Station and the modern Porta Nuova district, it offers maximum travel convenience thanks to the M3 Repubblica metro stop, the Passante Ferroviario and numerous surface lines that quickly connect every part of the city. The neighborhood is characterized by elegant buildings, executive offices, high-end hotels, and a wide selection of services, restaurants, and cafes. The proximity to Corso Buenos Aires, one of Milan's most important shopping streets, makes the area particularly lively and attractive for those seeking an exclusive residential solution.
