Located a few steps from the Central Station and the modern Porta Nuova district, it offers maximum comfort when traveling thanks to the presence of the M3 Repubblica metro stop, the Passante Ferroviario and numerous surface lines that quickly connect every part of the city. The neighborhood is characterized by elegant buildings, executive offices, high-level hotels and a vast choice of services, restaurants and cafes. The proximity to Corso Buenos Aires, one of the most important commercial streets in Milan, makes the area particularly lively and attractive both for those looking for an exclusive residential solution.
