Corso Venezia is one of Milan's most elegant and prestigious streets, renowned for its historic palaces, charming period buildings, and refined atmosphere.

Located in the heart of the city center, the area offers an exclusive setting enriched by luxury boutiques, historic cafés, fine restaurants, and premium services. The proximity to the Indro Montanelli Gardens further enhances the appeal and livability of the neighborhood, creating a perfect balance between tranquility and centrality. The location is particularly strategic, just a few minutes from Piazza del Duomo, San Babila, and the Fashion District.

The nearby MM1 Palestro and MM1/MM4 San Babila metro stations, together with numerous surface transport lines, provide fast and efficient connections throughout the city and to Milan Linate Airport. An exclusive address combining history, elegance, and prestige in the heart of Milan.
